6. COMMUNICATION BY EMAIL

Acceptable Email Use

All parish councillors will be issued with a nominated council email address which will be used for all parish council business in line with the recommendations from the Information Commissioner’s Office and the National Association of Local Councils to ensure compliance with the Data Protection Act 2019.

When a councillor leaves their role as a parish councillor, there is an expectation that they will undertake to delete their council email account.

Councillors unable to access the council email system can ask for papers to be posted to them via Royal Mail.

Councillors must ensure that any communication follows the principles set out in the Code of Conduct in particular to show respect to others.

Responsibilities

- Councillors communicating in an official capacity must not communicate their personal views. They may only communicate views they hold in an official capacity.
- Councillors are not permitted to debate matters of council business by e-mail. The correct procedure is for the debate to take place at a public meeting.
- Councillors have a duty to consider responsibilities that a council has towards members of the public, employees and other councillors.

- Councillors must take care to ensure that confidential information is not disclosed so as to place the council at risk of breach of confidentiality.

7. SOCIAL MEDIA

The Council uses 'www.utkintonandCotebrook.com' and Facebook ('Utkinton and Cotebrook Community Pages' and 'Utkinton-and-Cotebrook-Village-Group') to communicate messages to residents and will only be used:

- by the Clerk and persons nominated by the Clerk;
- to transmit factual information and news, not personal opinion;
- to respond to comments and requests submitted via the account.

The Council also has its own page on https://nextdoor.co.uk/news_feed/

Staff using their own social media accounts must ensure that any comment made is clearly identified as their own and not representative of the Council.

Councillors must ensure that any communication follows the principles set out in the Code of Conduct in particular to show respect to others.

Parish Councillors should be aware of the public perception of any posts on social media under their own name (residents may be aware of their position as a council member) and ensure that any views/opinions posted are not offensive or derogatory. If a councillor is uncertain of the content of a post, they should check with the Clerk.
